Call for Workshops

Please consider submitting an idea for a workshop that you would like run during the meeting. We can accommodate 45 minute and 90 minute workshops in the programme. Ideas for workshops that you would like to participate in are welcome, even if you do not want to deliver them.

Call for Abstracts and Posters

You are encouraged to submit abstracts for oral papers and or posters, please specify preference with your submission. Abstracts should be submitted via the EACE website:

<http://www.eaceonline.com/>

All abstracts will be peer reviewed by members of the scientific committee, and those accepted will be published in the programme and abstract booklet.

Please download the abstract template from the EACE website and submit your completed abstract to abstract@eaceonline.com

Final acceptance of abstracts is contingent upon the receipt of registration fees for the meeting.

Submit an abstract by February 28, 2017

EACE Mission Statement

To improve clinical outcomes through the education and training of individuals involved within the cancer and palliative care continuum and to facilitate communication and networking between those involved in cancer education.

EACE Objectives

- To improve interaction between policy makers, educators and those involved in the continuum of care of patients with cancer
- To support the translation of theoretical concepts into clinical care, for the benefit of patients, through research and education
- To provide training that enables individual educators and practitioners to:
 - develop their practice using evidence-based approaches
 - identify their needs for personal and professional development
 - develop the skills necessary for reflective practice
 - determine the effectiveness of their educational interventions

EACE Membership

The annual EACE membership fee (35 EUR) is included in the conference registration costs, but membership is also open to those not attending the meeting.

- EACE membership includes a subscription to the online version of the Journal of Cancer Education
